NEWS OF PLAYS AND PLAYERS

Miss Olga Cook, daughter of Detective Serieant Edward Cook, now attached to Headquarters, will become the prima donna of "Nobody Home" at the Princess Theatre in a few days, succeeding Miss Alice Dovey, who retires to resume a role in a Shubert production. This will be Miss Cook's first appearance in New York. She has never appeared in the chorus of any production, and her sole experience has been singing the prima donna role of the Shubert production of "At the Ball" in Chicago last winter. She is presented at that institution in the last decade. These are given by quartet, chorus and orchestra. An elaborate display of lanterns accompanies the singing of "Meet Me Where the Lanterns Glew," and there is an enormous property moon used in the singing of "Moon Dear."
